

Pet Sounds

When we put the call out in our first issue for readers to submit new 'pet sounds' for this column we never expected such a great response, or for so much effort to be put into contributions. With 130 pet-related songs included in our original list we were shocked when 200 new songs were submitted from readers all over Sydney.

It was definitely an assorted list and we were left quite surprised by not only the quantity of titles that we missed first time around—or never knew about to start with—but probably more so the diversity of some of your record collections! Granted some of the songs and their relation to actual pets were a little debatable, however, after much deliberation, possibly an office sing-along, and a great deal of musical knowledge gained, we have a winner! Well five to be exact.

Wendy Humphrey from Dee Why and her attractive cat Eric
Winning song: Daddy Wouldn't Buy Me A Bow Wow (Joseph Tabrar)

Annabelle Adamsons from Concord, her two over indulged Poodles, cranky Maltese and over friendly Shih Tzu (her description of the pets, not ours)
Winning song: Elegie auf Tod eines Pudels (Beethoven)

Pauline & Jacqui Ferguson from Barden Ridge, their two cats and two dogs
Winning song: Funky Gibbon (The Goodies)

Adam Gottlieb from Woollahra and his Aussie Shepherd called Jamaica
Winning song: I'm an Animal (The Animals)

Fran Crittle from Bondi, her two year old Kelpie/Foxy cross called Saffy and 5 month old Australian Kelpie Molly
Winning song: Me and You and a Dog Named Boo (Lobo)

All winning pet owners and their pets will receive a yummy—and useful—prize pack including a selection of some great Supercoat products, some tasty Greenie treats, Bags On Board Dispenser packs and Cat Scoops, Herb Doctor shampoo test packs, kitty couture and a lifetime membership to Dog-E-Data.
