Bark About It!

owners need to know for each walk and destination. In full colour, this guide also gives some interesting history and insight into some interesting landmarks.

Whiffen's research took 5 months and she shed a whopping 6 kilos in the process. And without a thought of hanging up her walking shoes, she's now beating a path to do another book chasing down Great Melbourne Dog Walks.

We can all be inspired by Katie's can-do attitude to get out there and share some great places and destinations. She wasn't going to listen to the naysayers who tried to talk about all the places you couldn't take your dog.
